

Lahinch Coast Hotel & Suites

Dear Guest,

A warm welcome to Lahinch and to our Hotel. We hope you will relax with us after your journey and enjoy the Hotel but also take some time to explore Lahinch and the local gems of Clare's Wild Atlantic Way on our doorstep!

As a destination you are spoiled for choice and for keen golfers it is hard to beat golf at Lahinch Championship Golf Club who this year are hosting The Arnold Palmer Cup and the prestigious Walker Cup Event in 2026. A two-minute stroll through the main street of Lahinch brings you to the promenade and a fantastic stretch of beach. Do check out some of the local surf schools who offer great fun lessons.

The Cliffs of Moher, Aran Islands and the Burren Discovery Trail are a must and if time is on your side don't forget the beautiful Loop Head Peninsula. Whatever you decide to do we hope you have a very enjoyable stay.

We are serving breakfast from 7.30am to 11am daily and please bear in mind peak times can be busy. Our Executive Chef and team work closely with great local food and beverage suppliers to create some wonderful seasonal dishes in the "Gastro Style" Aberdeen Bar and Restaurant. Food is served from 12.30pm daily, reservations are required in the restaurant and the menu is served in our Bar on a walk in basis however please be aware you may have a slight wait on a table during peak season and peak times.

The Swimming pool at our Leisure Centre is perfect for a dip at some stage during your stay!. We also have a Steam Room, Sauna, Jacuzzi, and fully equipped Gym. Towels are also provided. The enthusiastic team at the leisure centre are happy to help and available for assistance and equipment training. Opening Times Mon –Sunday: 9am to 9pm (last entry 8pm)

Children: 9am to 7pm (last entry 6pm)

We have complimentary Wi-Fi throughout the hotel and you do not require a password just select the signal Lahinch Coast Hotel

We are always mindful of safety and continue to embrace health and safety throughout every department for reassurance of our guests and employees. On arrival if you would prefer us not to service your room kindly inform reception and we are very happy inform our accommodation team and for your comfort there is a card in your room for any amenities you may like replenished.

We hope our younger guests enjoy some fairy fun throughout the hotel and be sure to show your Fairy books to reception at some point during your stay, they might even get a little reward !

If I or any of the team here can help make your stay more enjoyable please do let us know and we will be very happy to help.

Warmest Wishes for what we hope will be a memorable stay with us.

Arnold Palmer Cup - Lahinch 2024

Lahinch Golf Club is set to host the Arnold Palmer Cup in 2024 and Lahinch Coast Hotel is delighted to be part of the exciting golf event for the teams and coaches.

About The Arnold Palmer Cup

The Arnold Palmer Cup was co-founded by Arnold Palmer and the Golf Coaches Association of America (GCAA) and began at the Bay Hill Club & Lodge, Orlando, Fla., in 1997. The event is a Ryder Cup-style tournament featuring the top men's and women's university/college golfers matching the United States against a team of International players. The Palmer Cup has been played at some of the world's greatest courses, including The Old Course at St. Andrews, The Royal County Down, Royal Portrush, Baltusrol, The Honors Course, and Cherry Hills. Beginning with the 2018 matches at Evian Resort Golf Club, the Palmer Cup is the only major tournament that features men and women playing side-by-side as partners.

Since its inception, over 245 former Arnold Palmer Cup alumni have gone on to earn cards on the PGA, DP World, or LPGA Tours; 45 have represented Europe or the USA in the Ryder Cup, Presidents Cup, or Solheim Cup and more than 90 have claimed over 415 victories on the PGA, DP World, or LPGA Tours, including 2023 major champions Jon Rahm (Masters Tournament), Lilia Vu (The Chevron Championship & AIG Women's Open), Wyndham Clark (U.S. Open), Allisen Corpuz (U.S. Women's Open), and Brian Harman (The Open), as well as 2023 FedEx Cup champion Viktor Hovland. The United States leads the Palmer Cup series 14-12-1.

The Arnold & Winnie Palmer Foundation supports the Palmer Cup, which provides a platform for perpetuating Arnold Palmer's commitment to youth character development and the growth of amateur/collegiate golf. For more information, please visit ArnoldPalmerCup.com.

Trump International Golf Links Doonbeg (30-minute drive from the hotel)

The world-renowned Greg Norman designed 18-hole championship course at Trump International Golf Links & Hotel Doonbeg spans 1.5 miles of crescent shaped beach and century old sand dunes along Doughmore Bay. The County Clare golf course was officially opened in 2002 and immediately earned the prestigious title of Golf Digest's 'Best New International Course'.

Cliffs of Moher

The Cliffs of Moher on the west coast of Ireland are one of the most outstanding coastal features of Ireland. The Cliffs are 214m high at the highest point and range for 8 kilometres over the Atlantic Ocean on the western seaboard of County Clare. O'Brien's Tower stands proudly on a headland of the majestic Cliffs. From the Cliffs one can see the Aran Islands, Galway Bay, as well as The Twelve Pins, the Maum Turk Mountains in Connemara and Loop Head to the South.

The recently added Atlantic Edge Exhibition is a must see in the visitor centre www.cliffsofmoher.ie

Cliffs of Moher “Coastal Cliff Walk” from Liscannor to Doolin

Targeted at the more experienced walker, the newly constructed 12km coastal path takes walkers from Hags Head outside Liscannor Village along by the iconic Cliffs of Moher and into the village of Doolin. Trailheads with mapboards and designated parking for walkers are located at Moher Sports Field outside Liscannor village, Doolin Community centre outside Doolin village, and at the Cliffs of Moher Visitor Centre.

Walkers are advised that the Cliffs of Moher Coastal Walk is a challenging, remote and exposed Clifftop trail, which requires high levels of fitness and an ability to adapt to changing and extreme weather conditions.

Driving to the Cliffs of Moher is approx 10-15 minutes' drive (5km) a car park fee & entrance fee is payable.

We offer a wonderful Wild Atlantic Way package which includes an overnight stay and admission to the Cliffs of Moyer Experience.

Guerin's Path

A family-owned business, Guerin's Path to Cliff Walk provides a hassle-free alternative for an epic experience. Park your car at Guerin's farm and enjoy a lovely stroll along Guerin's Path to the stunning Cliff Walk along the Cliffs of Moher. Excellent for hikers and walkers who want to experience a bit of adventure tackling the Cliff Walk, for visitors who long to view the rugged beauty of the Wild Atlantic Way and for photographers and wedding parties looking to snap the perfect shot. It is also an excellent choice for families with young children, pensioners for whom strenuous walking is difficult and those in need of wheelchair accessibility to reach the cliffs in a quick and easy way. Local farmer Martin Guerin and his family welcome you to their farm to enjoy one of the most breath-taking wonders of the world.

The Burren Region

A special area / region which is quite unique. A spectacular array of wild flowers, archaeology and landscape. No matter what time of the year you visit there will be natural colour from orchid to blue gentian. Enjoy the walk as you explore the archaeology which hosts ring forts and tombs.

For most visitor's main source of attraction is the landscape itself, the unique stone grey contrasting to the nearby seaviews and hills. The Limestone region hosts the most amazing cave systems as well as being a paradise for birdwatchers. Daily walks take place from Ballyvaughan and we are happy to organise a local guide to make it even more interesting. -

The Burren Perfumery & Floral Centre

A perfumery shop hidden in the heart of The Burren in Carron, Co.Clare - ladies love it! Great for special gifts such as soaps, shower gels, shampoo. The working perfumery makes perfumes and cosmetics inspired by the landscape around and beautifully presented and wrapped.

The Aillwee Cave

Along the spectacular coastal route taking in the Cliffs of Moher and Doolin are intriguing caves which is an ideal activity for a rainy day. A chance to see the subterranean Burren. See bear pits, stalactites and underground waterfalls. Sample their homemade organic cheeses, honey and fudge in their farm shop.

Bird of Prey Centre at Aillwee Cave

Burren Bird of Prey Centre has been educating and entertaining visitors with dynamic flying displays set against the dramatic Burren Landscape. The mission of the Centre is to aid the conservation of Birds of Prey through visitor awareness and education, whilst actively fund raising for Raptor conservation monitoring efforts within Ireland.

Caherconnell Stone Fort

A new visitor centre at Caherconnell Stone Fort is situated 1km from Poul nabrone Dolmen on the main Corofin-Ballyvaughan road, offers you the opportunity to visit an exceptionally well - preserved example of the stone ring forts, which are to be found in the Burren area. Ring forts such as Caherconnell are thought to have been inhabited from 400-1200A.D.

The Liscannor Stone Story and Rock Shop

Fossils, gems and minerals from Liscannor and around the world. Learn all about Liscannor stone and the ancient quarrying around The Cliffs of Moher. Children love it also – great rocks of different colors and variety to purchase. It was featured on RTE's 2021 Toy Late Late show and children's favorite spots to shop!

Moher Hill Farm

This fantastic Farm experience with stunning views is perfect for younger children, they will adore finding and feeding the animals. Moher Hill Open Farm and Leisure Park is situated overlooking stunning Liscannor Bay and just 9km from us here at Lahinch Coast Hotel.

Moher Hill Farm boasts a wide variety of animals along with a range of bouncy castles, indoor and outdoor go karts, indoor play area and ball pool and much more. A great day out for all the family. Visit www.moherfarm.com for more information.

Doolin

Doolin is a charming small seaside village on the northwest coast of Clare. Set against the rugged Atlantic Ocean and surrounded by the spectacular bare limestone landscape of the Burren, Doolin is a place of breathtaking beauty which is situated 8km north of the famous cliffs of Moher. A traditional fishing village and also renowned world-wide as the traditional music capital. Some seafood on the menu in the Aberdeen Bar & Restaurant comes from Doolin. The ferry to the Aran Islands & Cliffs of Moher Cruise departs from Doolin Pier.

Ballyvaughan

Ballyvaughan – a nice stopping point when touring the Burren Region is nestled between the hills of the Burren (or mountains, as we call them) and the sea, on the southern shore of Galway Bay.

Families can enjoy the beach at Fanore perhaps allow us to arrange a picnic for you. Hillwalking and cycling are among the most popular pastimes among locals and tourists alike.

The Loop Head Peninsula

A drive along The Loop Head Peninsula on the West Coast of Clare with its wonderful scenery and rich heritage is a must. Much of the history of the area has been recorded in various publications. For more information on Loop Head www.loophead.ie

Visit Loop Head Lighthouse - Visitors can take a guided tour up the tower and go out onto the balcony from where, weather permitting you can see south as far as the Basket Islands and north to the Twelve Pins in Connemara, along the Wild Atlantic Way.
